

CONDITIONS

Booking and Deposit

A 30% payment of any invoice over $100 is required to confirm bookings. This payment must arrive at IAT-QC at least thirty days before the departure of the activity. Without reception of payment under these conditions, IAT-QC reserves the right to cancel any booking without prior notice. The remaining 70% of the payment is due the night of your arrival.

Cancellation Policy

In the case of a cancellation at least thirty days before the departure date, the amount paid for booking will not be reimbursed but held for a future booking. There will be no reimbursement for a cancellation made less than thirty days before departure, for an absence without a good reason or for abandonment during the hike. IAT-QC reserves the right to cancel any trip before the departure date in case of uncontrollable circumstances. In such cases, a full refund will be the final settlement with the client.

Payment

Payments are accepted by credit card, check, bank transfer, Interac transfer or money order. Cash payment is accepted on-site only.

Responsibility

Taking part in adventure activities involve certain risks. Participants commit themselves to discharge IAT-QC of all responsibility and liability in case of loss, damage and accidents that may occur during the trip. As well, cannot be held responsible in case of any damage whatsoever suffered by the participant (loss, illness, injury, discomfort or anxiety).

